JUNIOR LEAGUE OF NEW ORLEANS ANNOUNCES GIRLS NIGHT OUT BINGO!

November 2, 2016, NEW ORLEANS, LA – The Junior League of New Orleans (JLNO) is excited to announce its newest fundraiser, Girls Night Out BINGO! to take place at 7:00 p.m. on Thursday, December 1 at The Cannery (3803 Toulouse Street). Proceeds from Girls Night Out BINGO! will benefit women and families in the Greater New Orleans region.

“It’s true that the member volunteers of the Junior League of New Orleans love to make a positive impact in our community and have a good time doing it,” said JLNO President Maria Pardo Huete. “Our newest fundraiser, Girls Night Out BINGO! is a great opportunity to get dressed up, win some amazing prizes, and have fun with your girlfriends while contributing to JLNO’s community projects and our focus of advancing the wellbeing of women. Enjoy a Girls Night Out for Greater New Orleans.”

The event, open to only 300 ticketholders, will feature at least six games of BINGO and high-end, luxury prizes including a Tahitian black pearl necklace, a coveted spot in the Krewe of Orpheus parade plus throws, New Orleans Saints tickets, a New Orleans staycation package, and more. Food and drinks will be provided by a number of local restaurants.

Girls Night Out BINGO! is open to the public, ages 21 and older.
