THE JUNIOR LEAGUE OF NEW ORLEANS OPENS APPLICATIONS FOR 2022-2023 SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

NEW ORLEANS, LA - The Junior League of New Orleans (JLNO) is pleased to announce it will once again offer scholarship opportunities for the 2022-2023 school year. JLNO launched its Scholarship Opportunity program in 2017 to help women obtain degrees or certificates necessary for joining the workforce or for advancement within their careers. The Scholarship Opportunity program is geared towards non-traditional female students either looking to begin post-secondary programs or in need of support completing the final term of their programs. Alleviating their educational financial burden provides these scholarship recipients with the opportunity for economic success and independence.

As an organization of women committed to advancing the wellbeing of local women, the Junior League of New Orleans desires to reach all qualified female students who exemplify diligence and dedication to elevate their vocation with a degree in their field. Trying to obtain an education can be an uphill climb, and JLNO is pleased to support hard working women in their determination to create a better future for themselves, their family, and their community.

“We are excited to open our scholarship application process once again,” says Holly Paczak, Junior League of New Orleans President. “JLNO is focused on advancing the wellbeing of women, and this initiative has the potential to affect meaningful change in our community by helping women complete the degree or certification needed to advance their careers.” She punctuates this sentiment by adding, “Economic independence is powerful, and we are proud to offer this opportunity to help women achieve such a significant milestone.”

The JLNO Scholarship application period is open now through February 24th and can be accessed online at <https://www.jlno.org/community/scholarship/>. Applicants must be a woman who resides in the Greater New Orleans area, is at least 25 years of age, and is enrolling or is currently enrolled in an accredited undergraduate program (academic and/or vocational) in the Greater New Orleans area. Please note the scholarship opportunity is not available for those seeking graduate or postgraduate degrees such as Masters, PhD, MD, JD, etc. Additional information may be obtained by contacting the Scholarship Committee at scholarship@jlno.org or JLNO Headquarters at 504.891.5845. For media interview opportunities, please contact news@jlno.org.
